

‘What are you doing, Harey?’ asked Scampi the cat as she looked over his shoulder at the computer screen.

‘I’m writing to some friends in an online chat room,’ said Harey deeply involved in his computer. ‘And it’s a really good site.’

'What's a chat room?' asked Chips the dog.
'Yes. What's a chat room?' repeated Pillow the parrot.

'It's a website where you can go online and write to other people, and they can write back to you.'
