

Felicity Fly meets Veronica Vac

By Christina Gabbitas

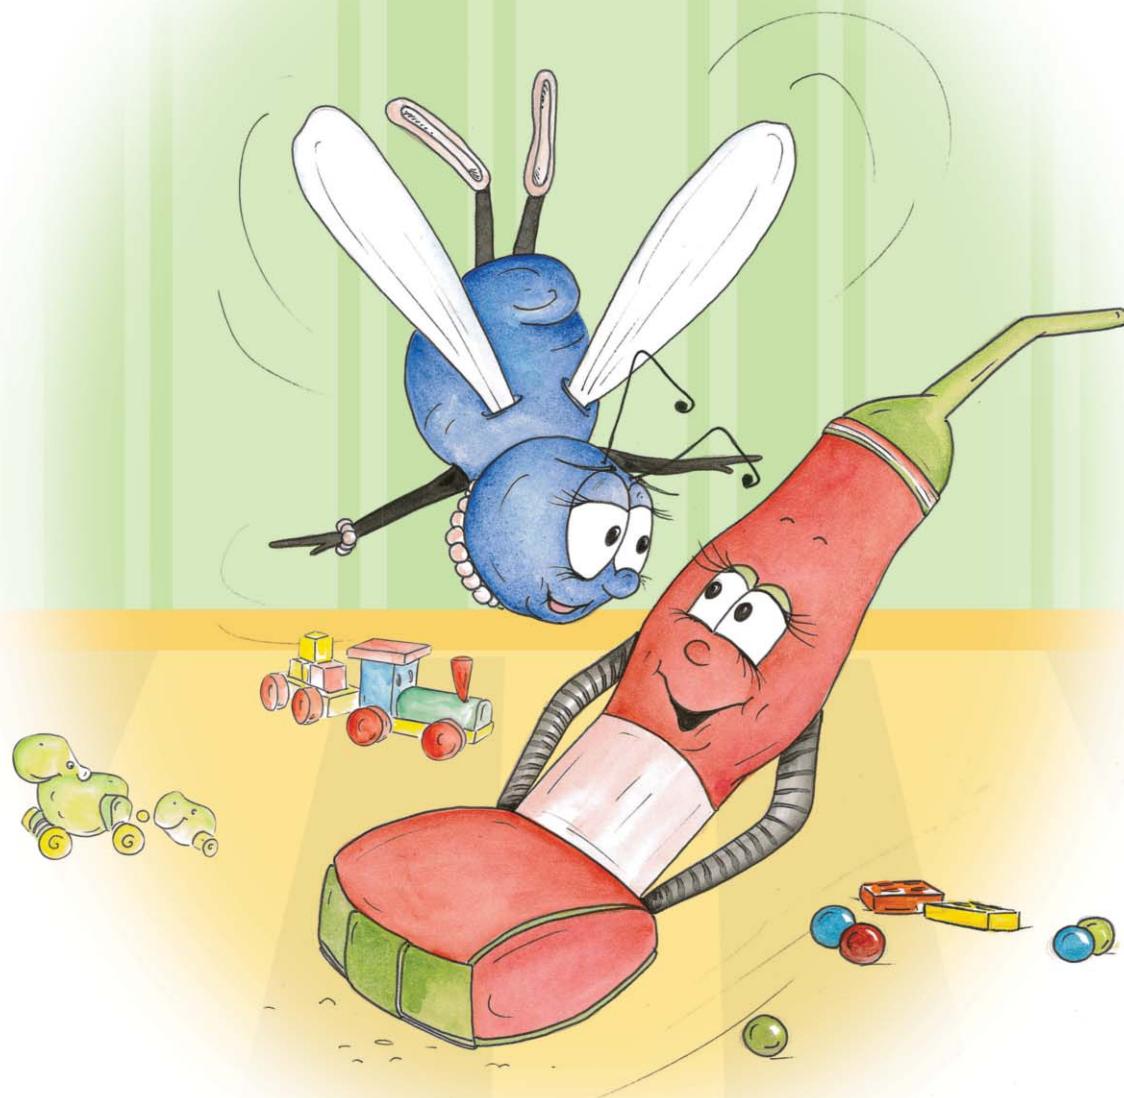

Felicity is awakened by a very loud whirring noise coming from the next room.

Could it be the very same object she saw in the cupboard, which was stood next to the broom.

“Oh my goodness,” fizzes Felicity. “Who are you?
Why on earth do you make so much noise?”

“I am Veronica Vac, I’m vacuuming up dust from amongst the toys.

I help to keep the floor clean from dust and crumbs,
as the children always make such a mess.

I wish that they would be tidier
and take more care, I must confess."

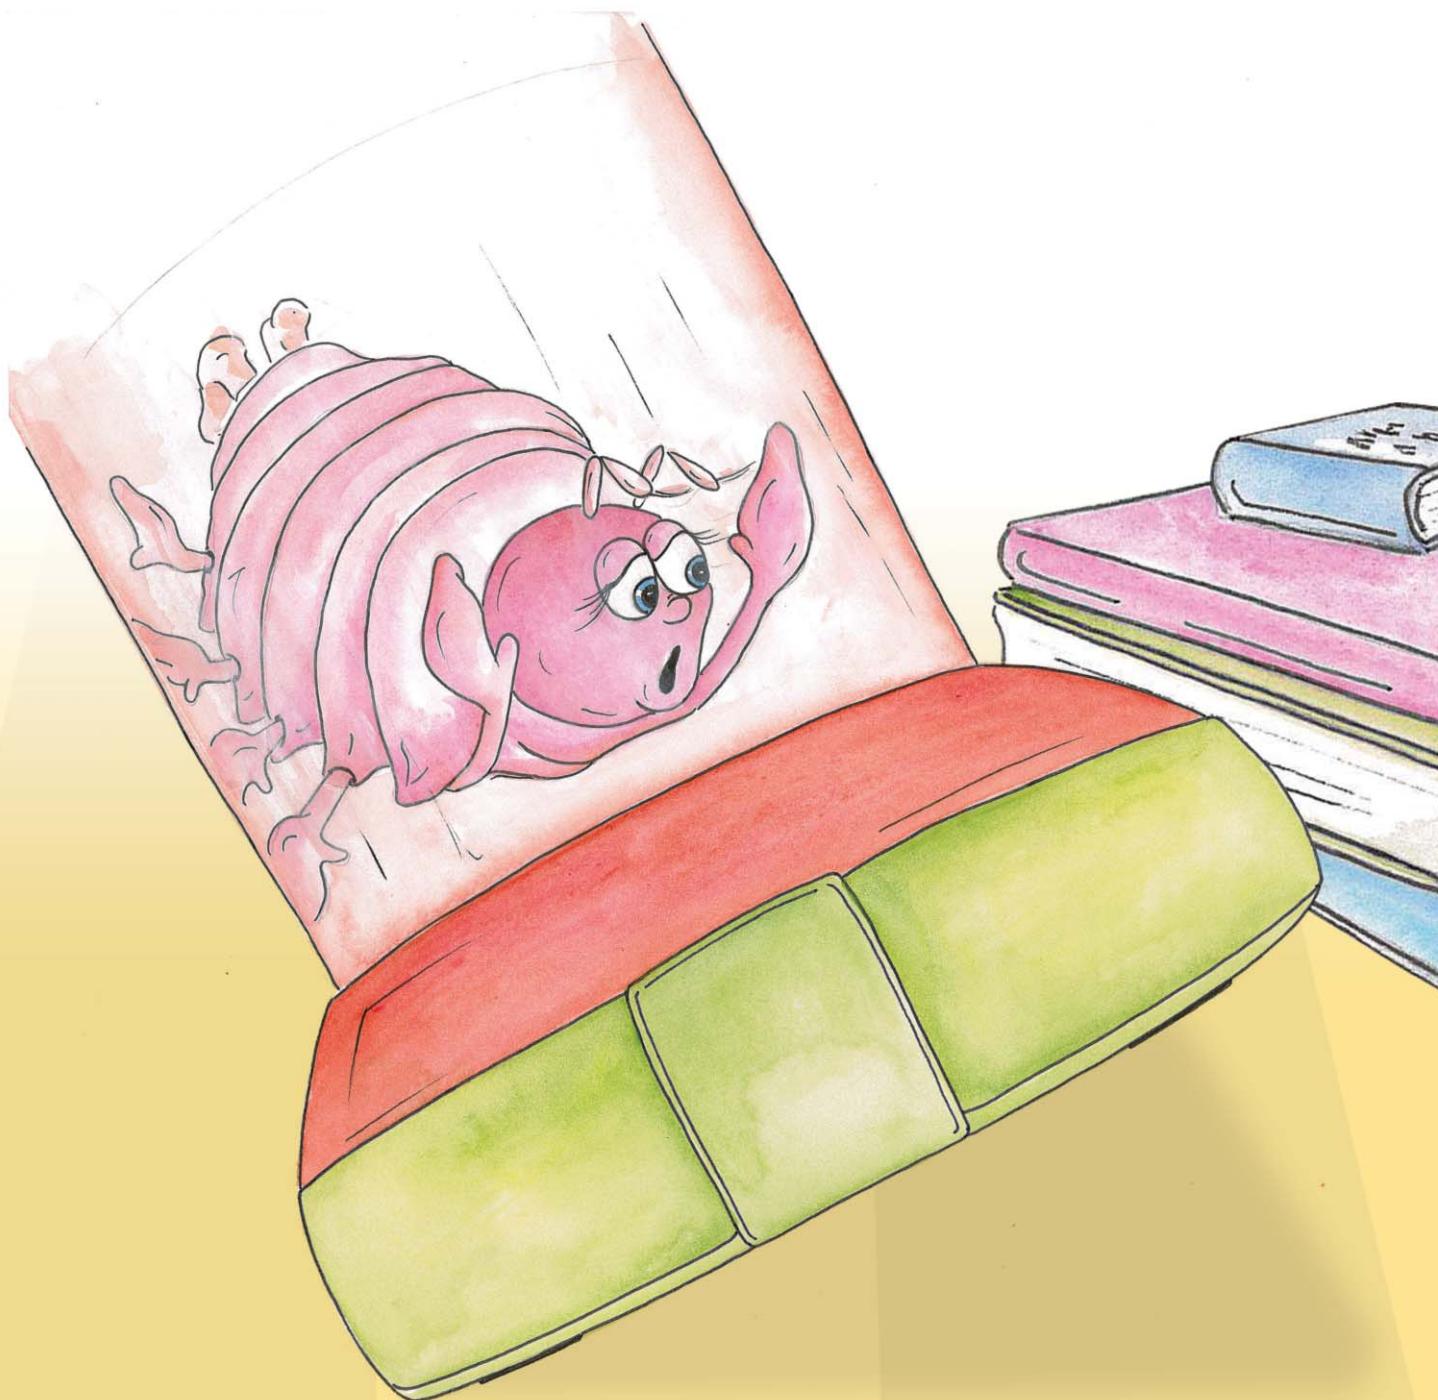

“Oh no!! Look out! Felicity fizzes.
You've just vacuumed Willamina Woodlouse,
she must have been hiding under those books!”

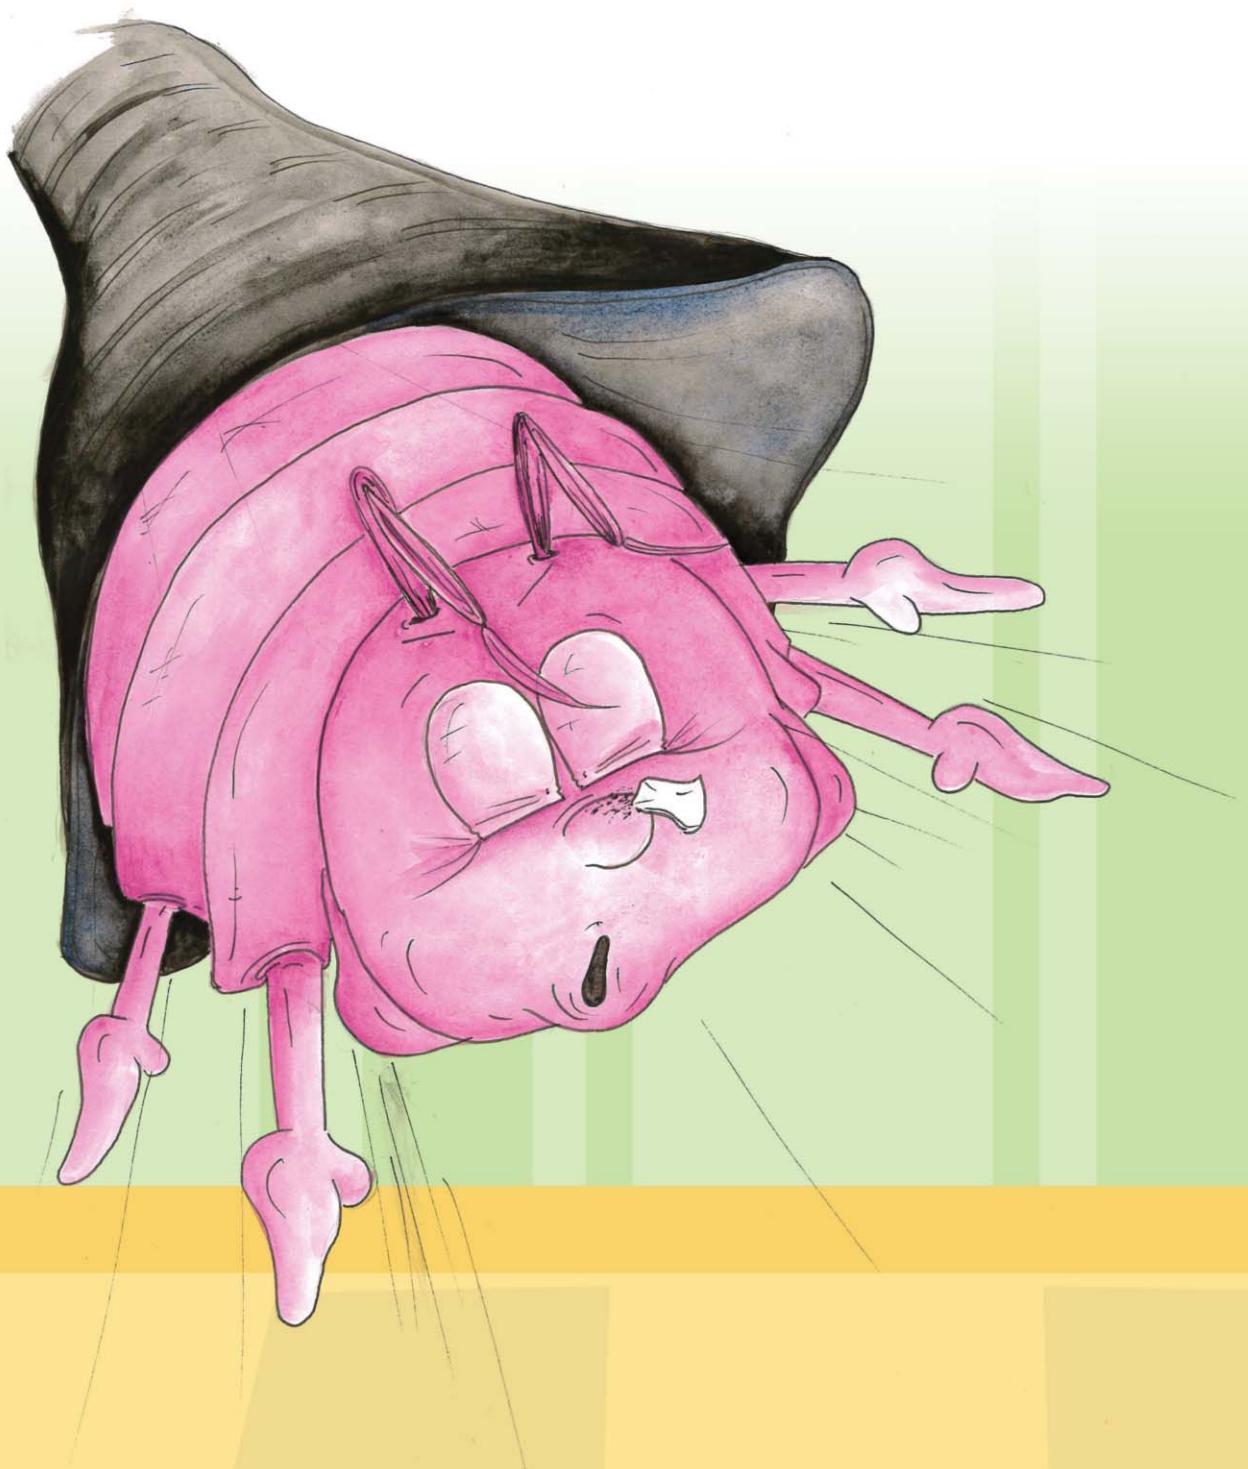

Veronica whirrs, “Well, Willamena should be careful, if she doesn’t want to spoil her looks.”

Felicity fizzes with a panic! “I can see her through your cleaner, she’s waving, you must help her Veronica Vac.” “No problem”, whirrs Veronica, “I will blow her through the hose, she will soon be back.”

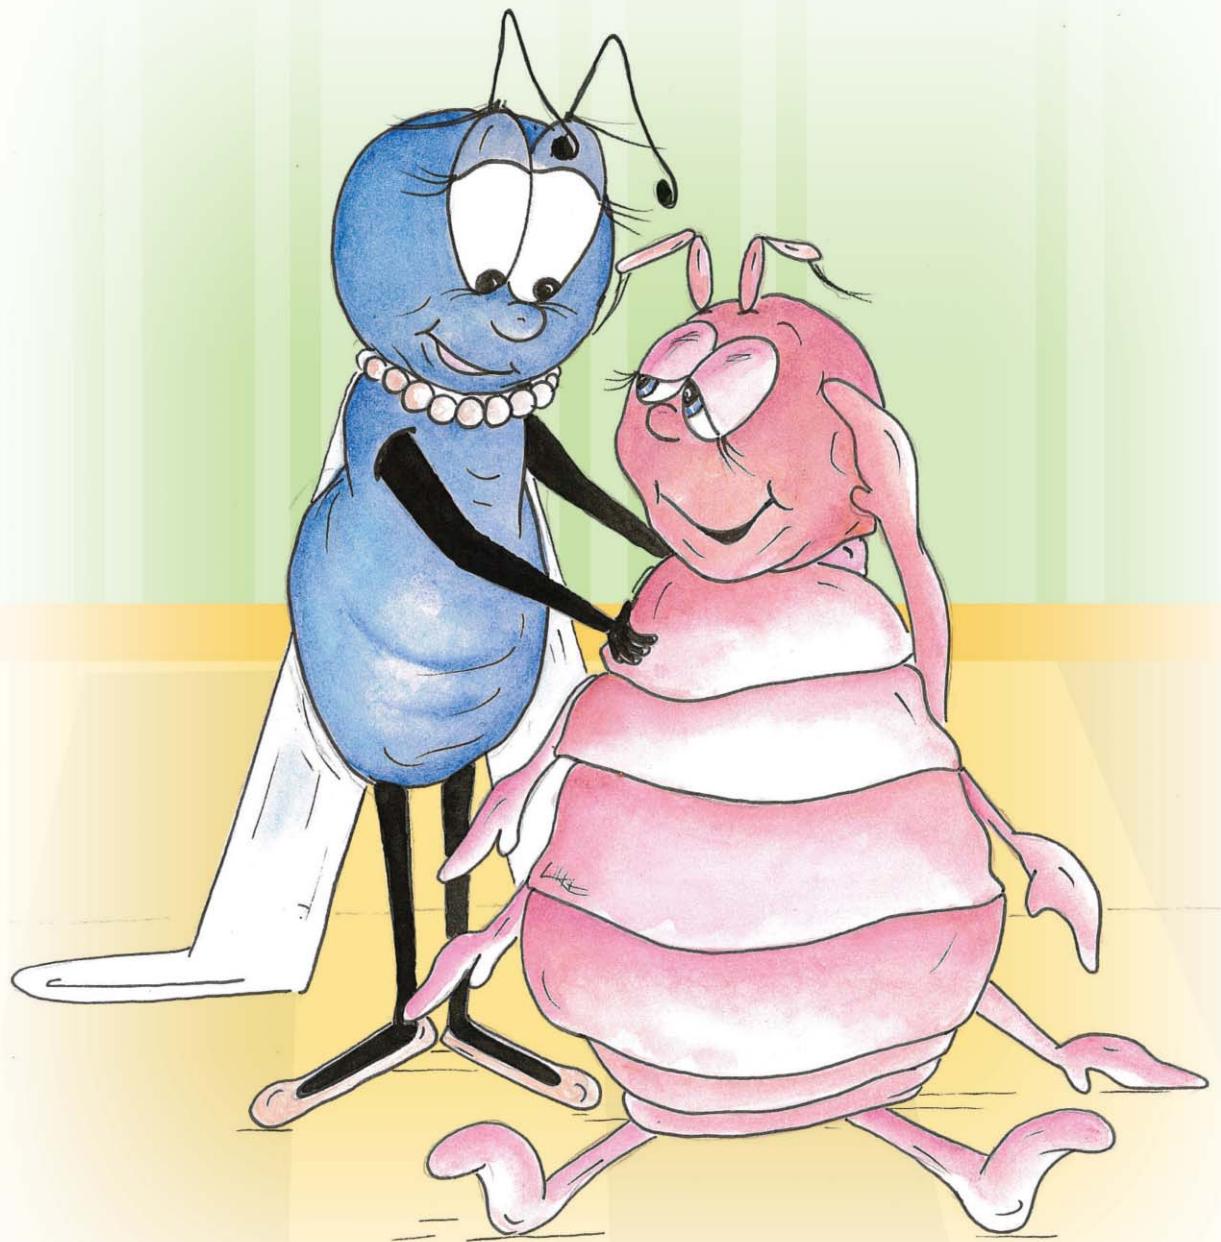

“Thank you Veronica, for being so helpful and understanding, I know that your job is very demanding,” Felicity replied.

Willamena makes an entrance down through the hose, with bits of paper and dust stuck to her nose.

Felicity fizzed, “Are you alright Willamena? I was very worried that you would be gone for good and buried.”

“I’m fine Felicity,” said Willamena,
“I thought I was dreaming and thought
I could hear somebody screaming.”

Felicity replied, “Oh Willamena, you spend lots of time sleeping, but you do make me smile.”

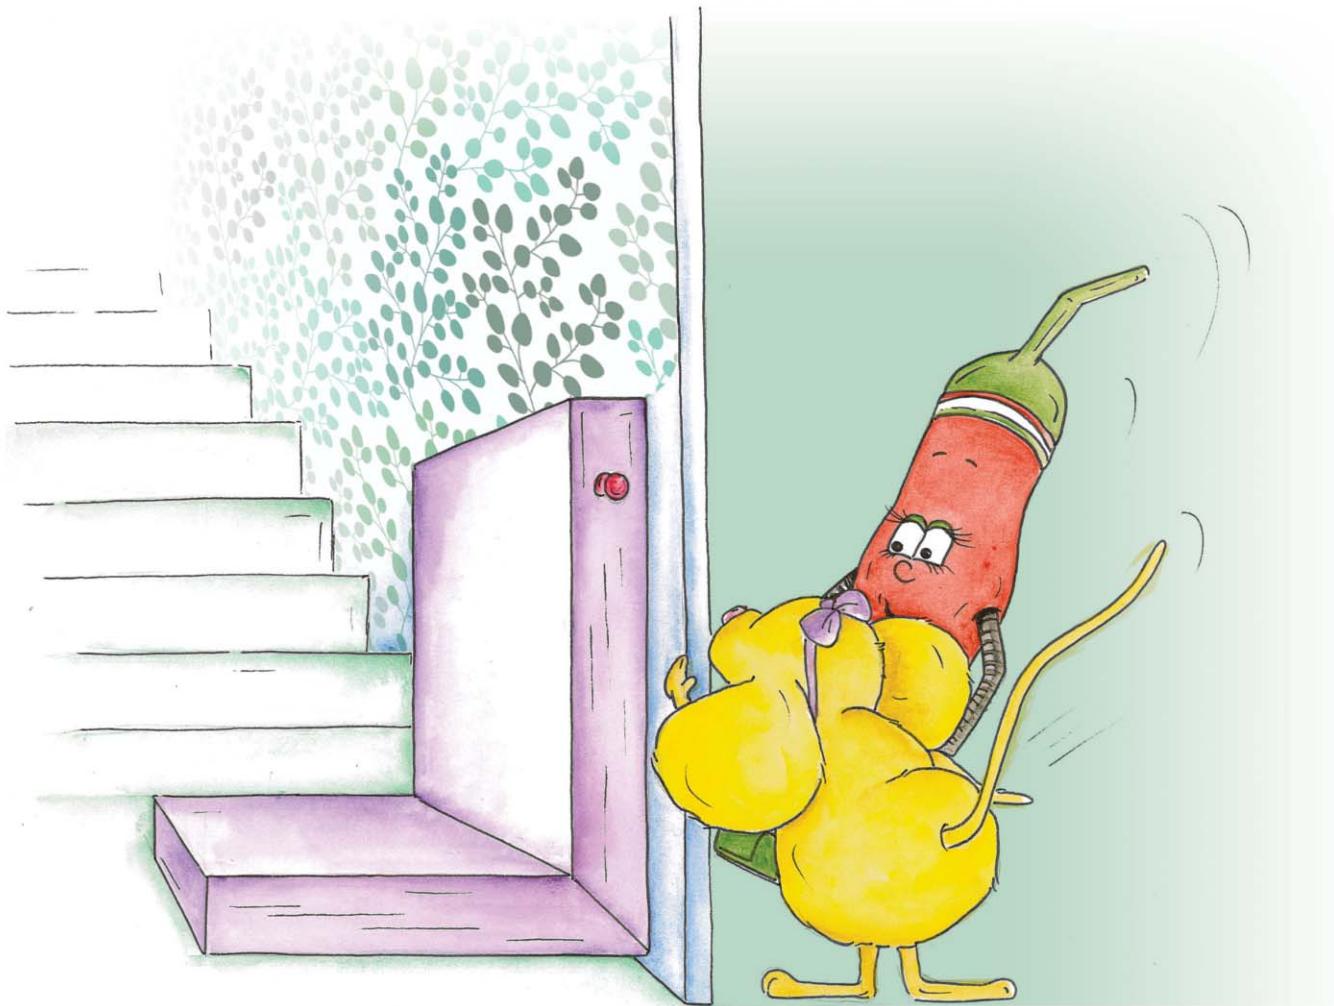

Willamena Yawns, “I sleep in the day and I’m awake at night. This is called nocturnal, I don’t sleep all the while.”

Veronica whirrs, “nocturnal, that’s a word I have never heard before! Thank you for sharing that with us, that’s a very interesting fact.

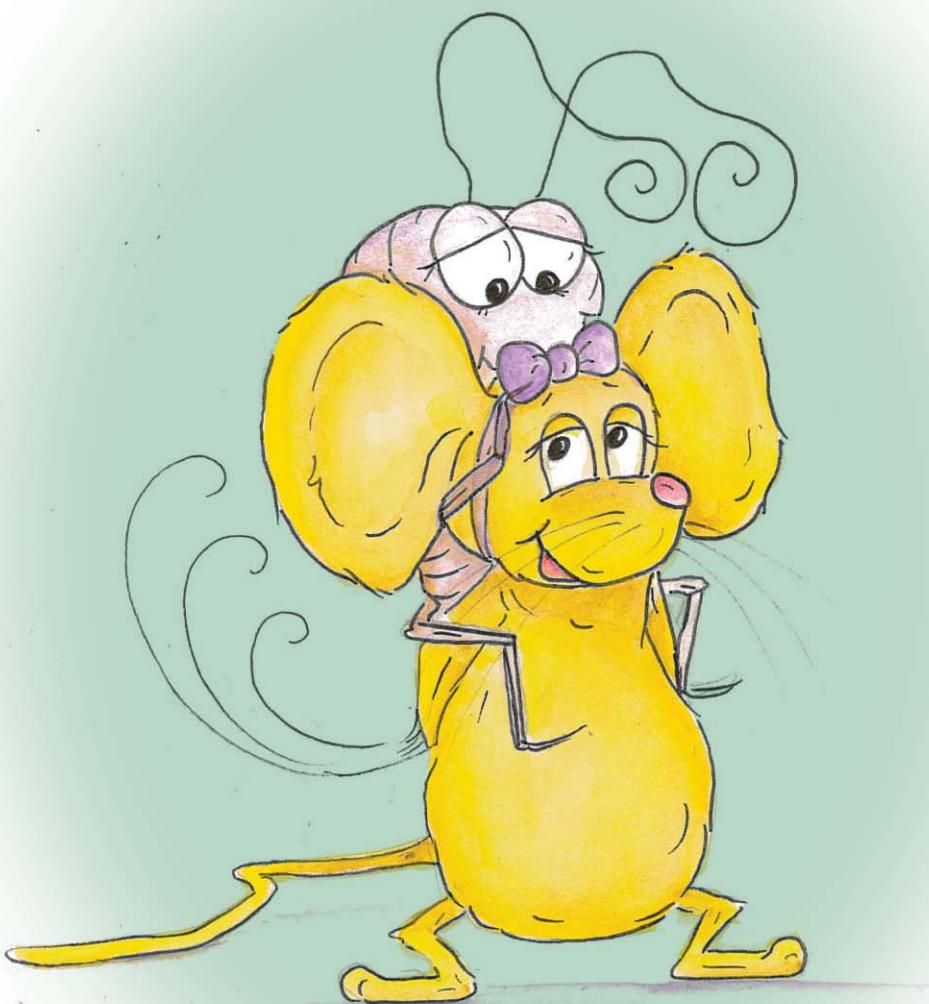

I learn new things everyday living in this house and I am pleased you are intact.”

Just at that moment they all heard a voice shouting for help, coming from upstairs, “help! help!
I’m up here in the bathroom, I’m stuck in the bath,” Simon Spider declares.

“Oh no!” squeaks Moey Mouse, “we must all help him. I will go and find Sissy Silverfish.”

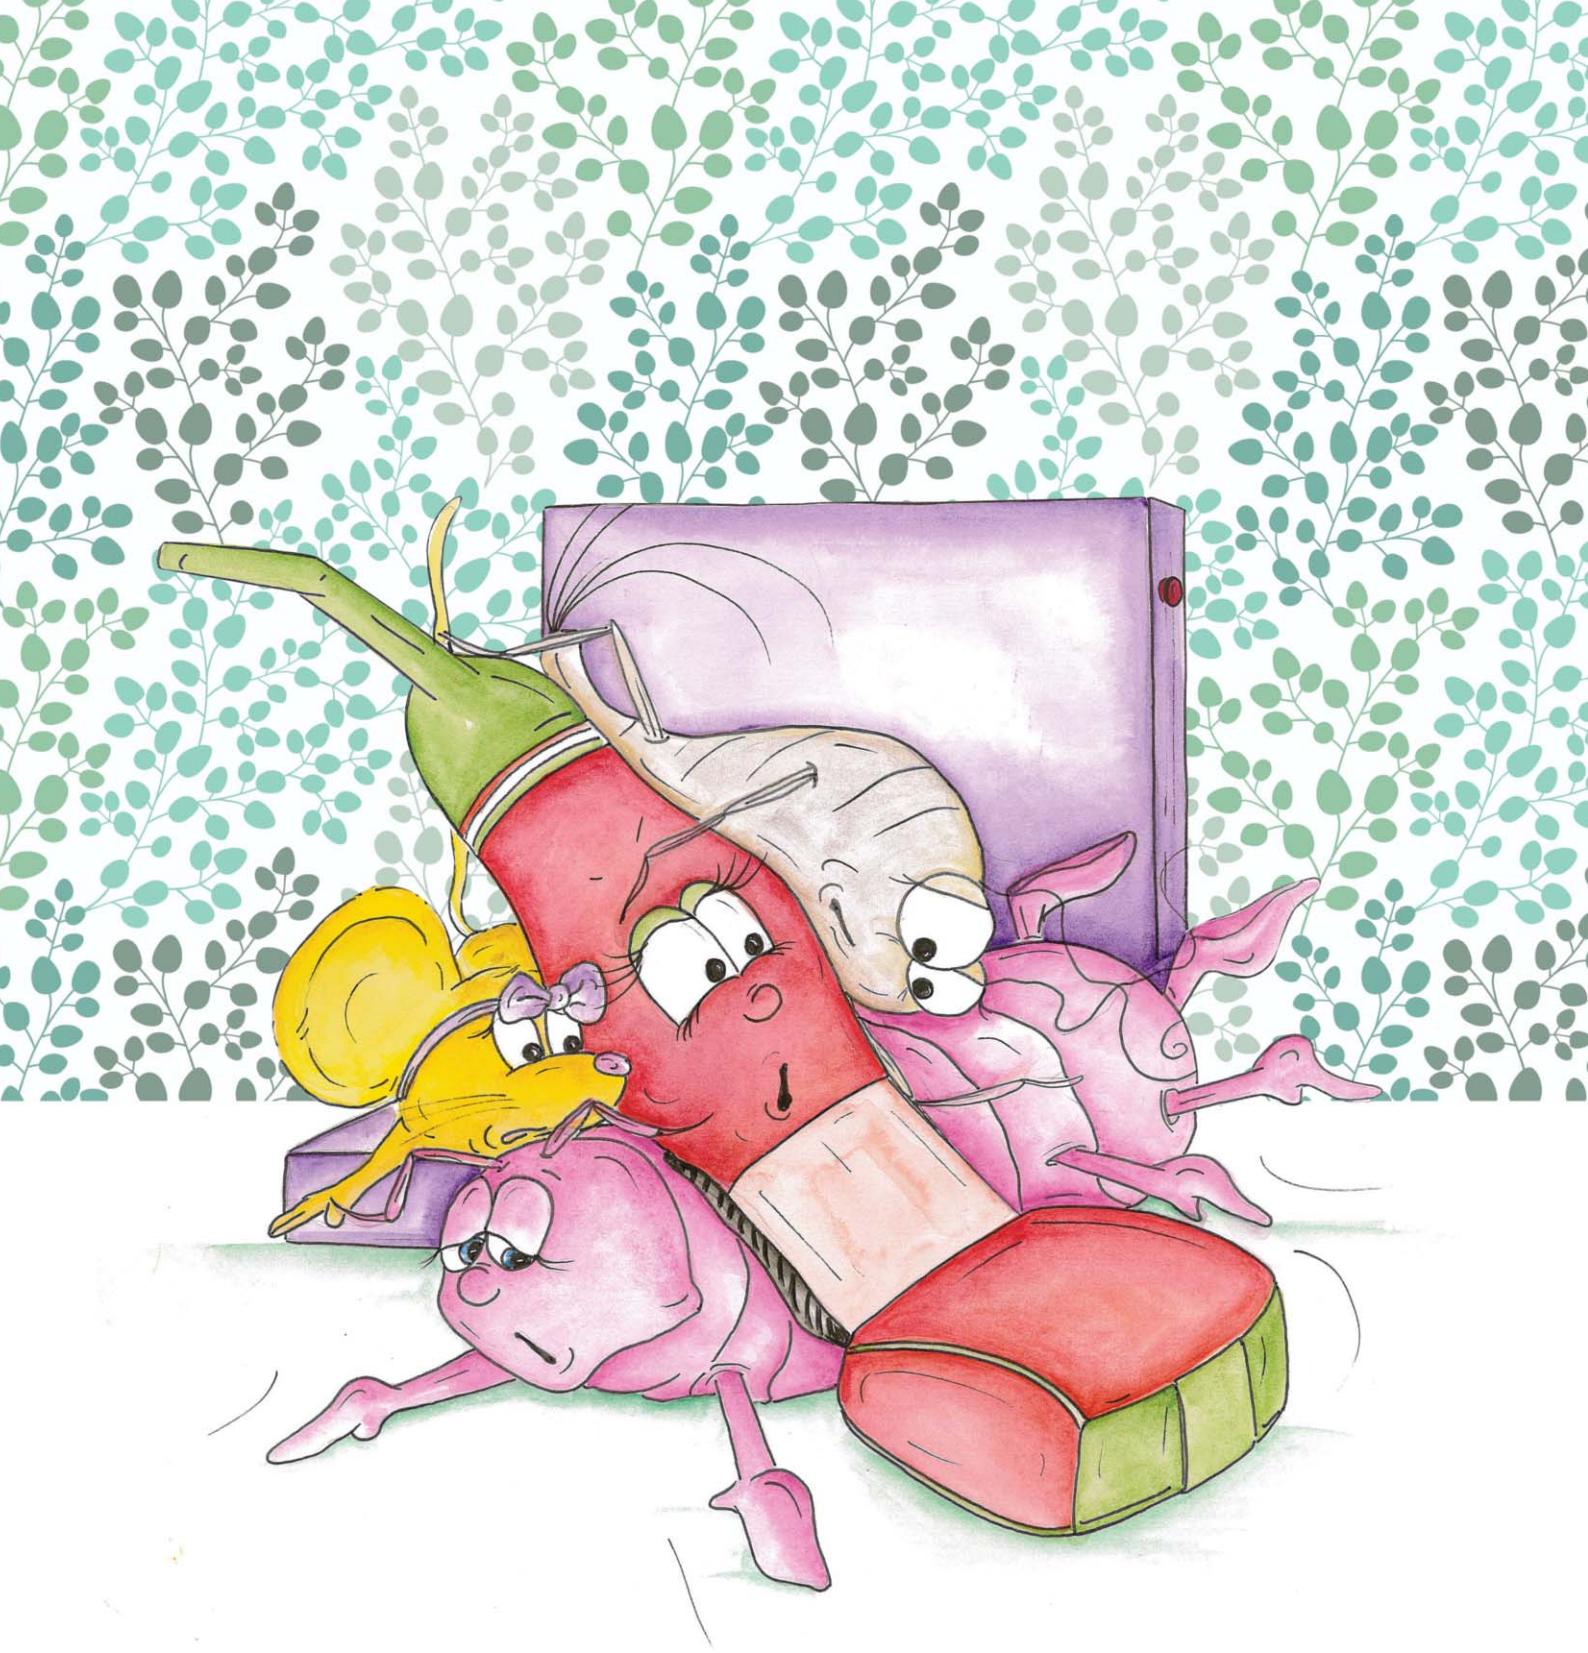

“In the meantime,” whirrs Veronica, “I will make headway for the stair lift.”

Sissy Silverfish slithers on to Moey Mouse's back and Felicity Fly helps operate the stair lift for Veronica Vac.

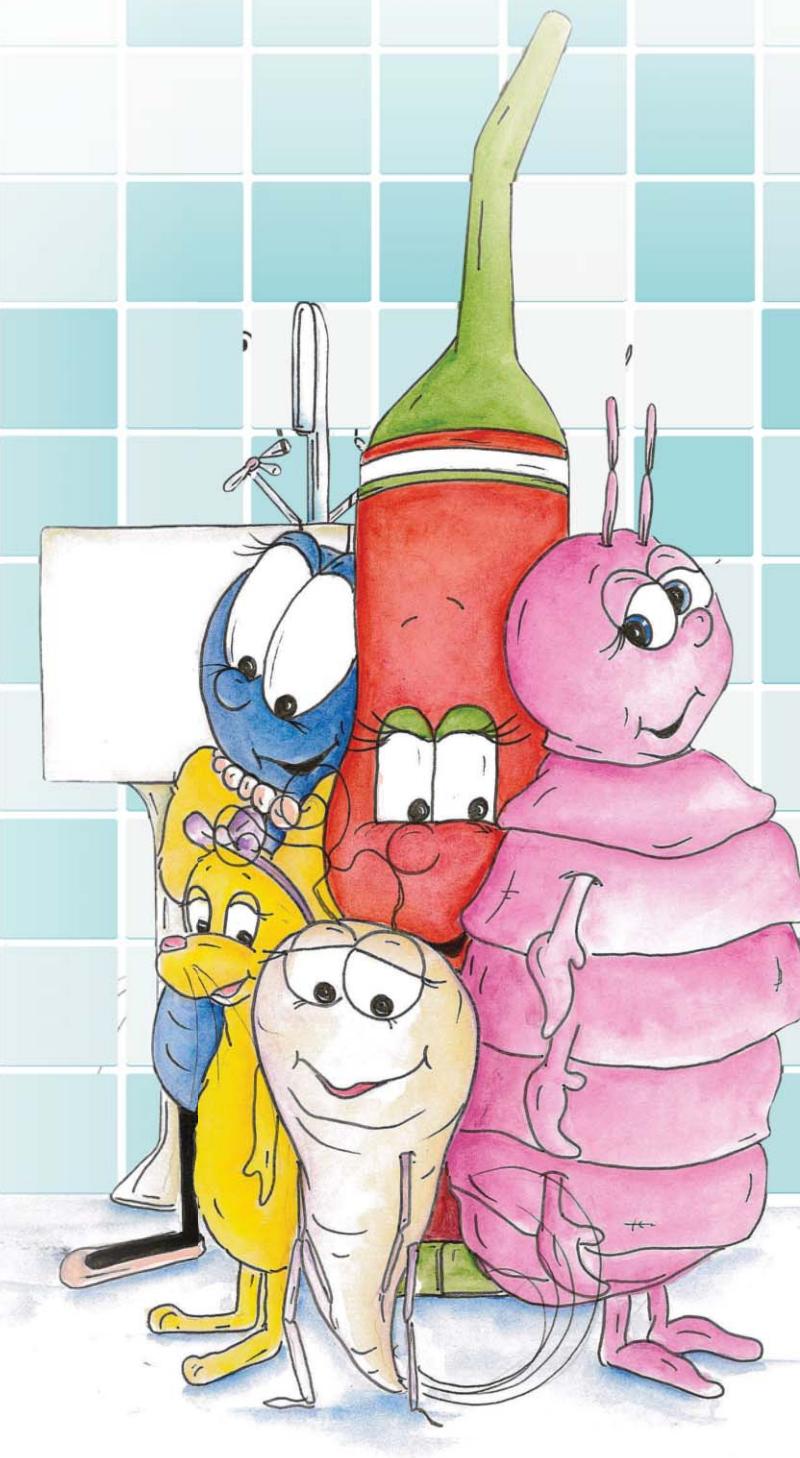

Veronica Vac, Moey Mouse, Sissy Silverfish and Willamena Woodlouse all climb onto the stair lift seat. Felicity flies upstairs to try and ease Simon Spiders distress, to help keep his thoughts upbeat.

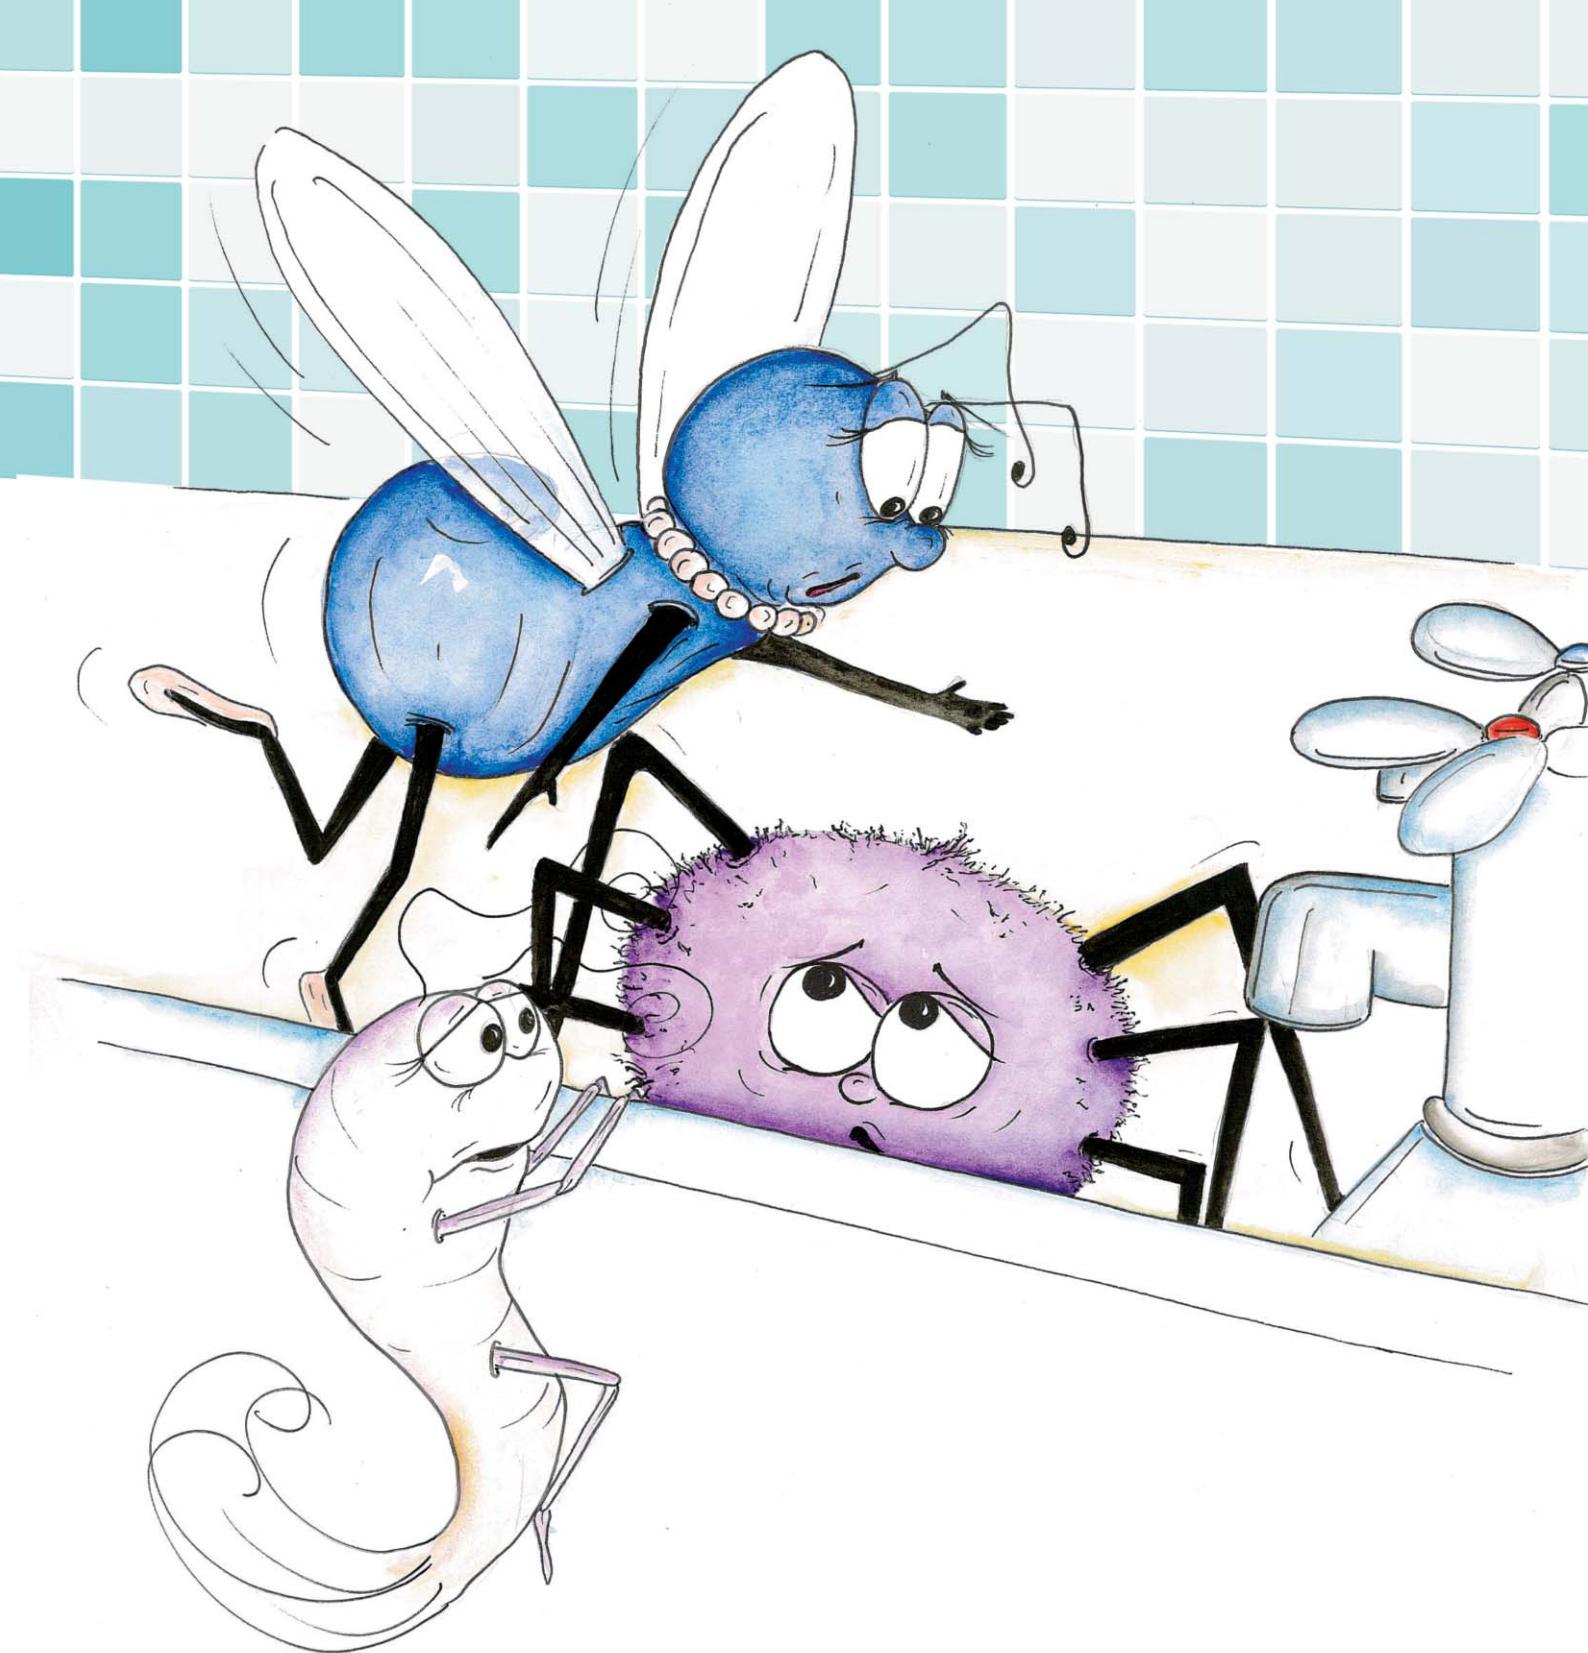

Sissy Silverfish, Moey Mouse, Veronica Vac
and Willamena Woodlouse all arrive at the top of the stairs and take a great big — leap.
They all stumble off in a crumpled heap.

Felicity flies out of the bathroom and shouts...
“Come on everybody, Simon is in here,
let’s help him get out of the bath to help
overcome his fear.”

They all squash themselves into the bathroom, with barely any room for a broom.

"Ok Simon, here is what I think we can do," said Felicity. "If you start to spin a web, I can pick up some of the web and tie it to Veronica Vac. Sissy Silverfish, can give you words of encouragement with her singing and Moey Mouse will help push you up from the back."

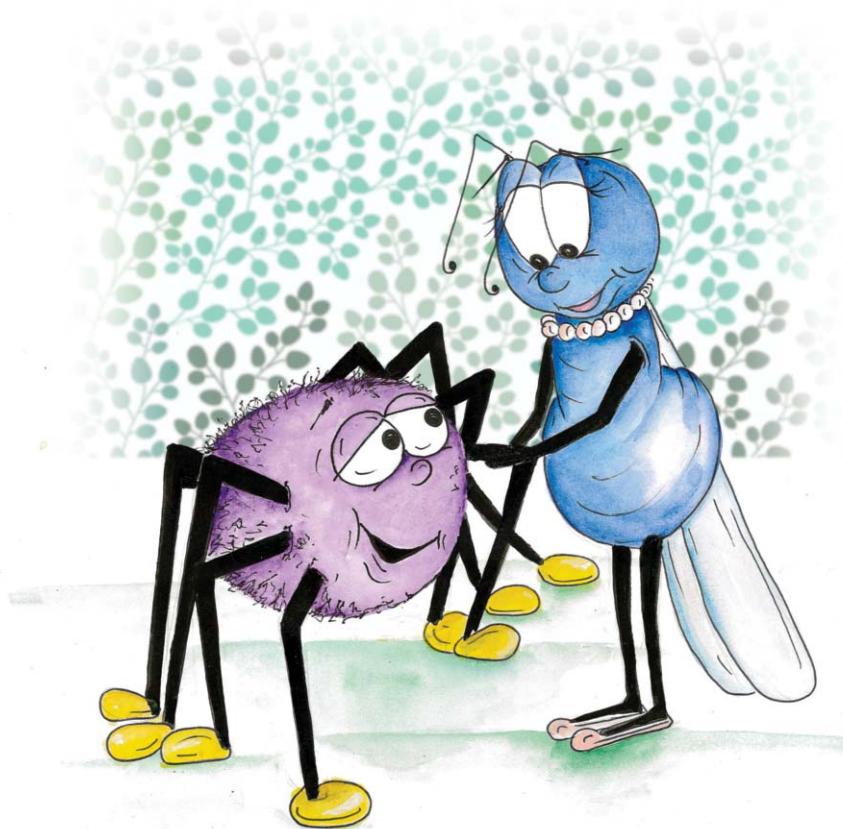

Veronica Vac and Simon Spider stand firm, whilst Sissy Silverfish sings and Moey Mouse helps to push.

“Don’t you worry Simon dear, we will get you out of here, just you stay nice and calm, there’s no need to cause alarm.”

Then all in a flash, there was a mighty big whoosh!!!

Simon Spider was back on dry land,
with a great groups of friends, who all lent a helping hand.

"Oh! Thank you so much," said Simon, "that's such a relief, I'm terribly sorry to cause you all such grief."

"That's what friends are for Simon, it was a team effort," said Felicity Fly.

"Let's all have a rest and sleep," Willamena says with a big sigh.

"All aboard the stair lift then," whirrs
Veronica. "Down the stairs we go...
Look out for our next adventure to see what happens... or you will never know..."

Felicity Fly theme song...

I am Felicity Fly,
My dream is to fly up to the sky
I meet some lovely characters along the way
Here they all are, they will make your day.
I'm Moey Mouse and I like good food
It always puts me in a jolly mood.
Willamena Woodlouse and I like sleeping
I spend my time thinking and dreaming.
I'm William Washing Machine
I keep clothes fresh and clean.
I'm Simon Spider, I scare some people
But I don't really mean too.
I'm singer and I sing with a swish
My name is sissy Silverfish
Veronica Vac is my name
Keeping carpets from dust is my aim.

The end.
